

WINDTALKER IS BACK!

A publication of Frog Lake First Nations

INTERAGENCY MEMORANDUM

Date: Monday, October 17, 2011

To: Frog Lake Inter-Agencies

From: Loretta Quinney, Editor/Reporter FLFN WINDTALKER

Re: WINDTALKER First Issue – Content needed

First of all I like to welcome the WINDTALKER back to the community of Frog Lake First Nations! The newspaper is intended to provide the community with program update; to inform the community with relevant and trustworthy news and information on Frog Lake First Nations. The WINDTALKER began at the old Finance office with a volunteer committee consisting of 5 members and produced the first edition of the WINDTALKER on December 11, 2006. The WINDTALKER will now be published on a monthly basis.

We will be accepting material editorial or advertising and pictures for submission on publication in the following areas: business, arts, sports, program updates, announcements (birth, wedding, engagements, anniversaries, office closures etc), upcoming events, management reports, job postings, greetings, acknowledgements and recognition, classified or display ads, program activities, music and entertainment.

Deadline for submissions for the November newspaper is Wednesday, October 26, 2011. DISTRIBUTION IS SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 15, 2011.

Please submit an electronic copy of your submission to:

Loretta Quinney, lorettaquinney@froglake.ca or

Verna Waskahat, vernawaskahat@froglake.ca

CALL: 780-943-3737 Ec. Dev. Fax: 780-943-2671

or Main Fax: 780-943-3966

Electronic copies are accepted in CD-R's, memory sticks, email and fax. All greetings for birthdays, anniversaries, wedding announcements, community events etc. will be accepted on or after November 15, 2011. No belated greetings please.

Agencies are encouraged to submit their program updates, postings and information for upcoming events.